STORIES OF PHILANTHROPY AND HOPE • Summer 2007

Poetic Justice is a publication of The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland

● Edward Icové became an attorney, following in the footsteps of his father, Morton B. Icové, a Cleveland attorney who worked closely with the ACLU. Mr. Icové began working with the Legal Aid Society of Cincinnati soon after graduating from the University of Toledo College of Law. Icové was recognized for his exemplary work when he received the Award for Outstanding Pro Bono Services as a Volunteer Attorney from Southeastern Ohio Legal Services in 1997.

Now the head of his private practice, Icové Legal Group, Mr. Icové handles cases dealing with Social Security disability, supplemental security income (SSI), consumer law, civil rights, and housing discrimination. Icové served as a co-counsel in both state and federal courts with legal service attorneys throughout the state of Ohio, and currently serves as the vice president on

OUR MISSION:

To secure justice and resolve fundamental problems for those who are low income and vulnerable by providing high quality legal services and working for systemic solutions.

Board Member Profile:

Edward A. Icové

the board of trustees at The Legal Aid Society of Cleveland.

As a champion for the rights of the lower class, Mr. Icové credits his service with Legal Aid as allowing him to be where he is today: "My legal service experience provided me with the background and tools to help poor and working poor clients as a public interest attorney."
